"ALL IN YOUR HEAD"

One day I said, "Uncle Wes, I have heard that old age is all in your head, Is that right?" He said, "Well, I guess so because that's where you find the false teeth, the hearing aids, the loss of Memory, the eye glasses, the hair growing in your ears, the loss of Memory, the loss of your hair, and the loss of Memory."

Yes, son, it's all in your head. By the way, I think I forgot to mention the loss of Memory."

One type of inflation is the most dangerous of all---an inflated ego.

You can't change human nature, but perhaps you can improve it.

Intelligence is like a river, the deeper it is the less noise it makes.

If, in his sermon, the preacher aims at nothing, he usually hits it.

Influence is something you think you have until you try to use it.

God's Law Of Exclusion

Usually in our modern experience, a great sin exposed in the church, such as that of Ananias and Sapphira, brings the church into disrepute for a time, diminishes the respect for it entertained in the community, and renders all efforts to add to its members futile. Why was the effect in Jerusalem the reverse of this? This is a serious question for those who bear rule in the church. It is evident that the difference depends on the very different way in which such scandalous conduct is now treated. If the Jerusalem church had tolerated Ananias and Sapphira by retaining them in their fellowship after their exposure, doubtless the "ways of Zion would have mourned," and sinners would not have turned to the Lord. But the sudden punishment visited upon them by the Lord, and the abhorrence of their deed manifested by burying them without ceremony in the clothing in which they died and while their bodies were scarcely cold, made the whole community feel that here was a people among whom sin could not be tolerated. It was a safe place for a man who needed holy companionship to help him in the effort to live a holy life - a place in which he might expect every false step to be promptly corrected, and through which he might confidently hope to make his pilgrimage to a better world. People who wish to make a compromise with sin, and who join a church merely because they are afraid to live without some appearance of religion will always avoid such a church, but those who are in earnest about the desire to save their souls and to do good, seek just such a church as their spiritual home. When shall the rigid discipline which God established in the beginning be seen on earth once more?
