MY PRAYER

Teach me Lord, to be sweet and gentle in all the events of life, in disappointments, in thoughtfulness of others, in the insecurity of those I trusted, in the unfaithfulness of those on whom I relied.

Help me to put myself aside, to think of the happiness of others, to hide my little pains and heartaches, so that I may be the only one to suffer from them.

Teach me to profit by the suffering that comes to me. Help me to use it that it may mellow me, not harden or embitter me; that it may make me broad in my forgiveness, kindly, sympathetic and helpful.

Meddling In Other People's Business

We have been bombarded for many months now by supposedly highly concerned politicians and news agencies that our election was hacked by the Russians and there may have been collusion by the winning candidate and his election team. So far, this is all I know for sure as it is all that has been factually reported. There was no fake news, invented materials put together to manipulate the voting public by the Russians. What then is the problem? People were being informed about what was actually and truly being said in what was thought to be private conversations. People were being targeted with information that was true concerning which candidates were for the expansion of abortion rights, gun rights, sexual perversion rights (?), etc. In other words, to let people know the truth about what is going on and who really believes what they are saying in public is called terrible, bad, criminal, and deserving of the most chaotic and divisive accusations I have ever been aware of.

The Lord's church has always had to deal with the same type of thing since the very beginning. Meddling in other people's business here is simply providing the truth without which nobody can be saved! There is a vast number of otherwise good people who have no desire for that truth nor for those who love them enough to tell them about it. What can we do? What must we do? Can we be silenced by misrepresentation and intimidation? May it never be so! We must be wise as serpents and harmless as doves (Matthew 10:16). Of course, this role is reserved for sheep in the midst of wolves. It may be that we have failed to recognize that first part of the verse which serves as the basis for the Lord's instructions. Smart, intellectually intense and innocent we strive to be. This balancing act is tremendously difficult but a necessary ideal to which we must ever strive! Truth frees (John 8:31-32). Nothing else can. Friends and brethren, something indeed is wrong, but the Bible is still, and will always be, right! Honesty is demanded, even when it collides with cherished lies. Real men and women, guileless and convicted, this is what we must ever determine to be.
