A GUIDE TO GOOD LIVING

Learn to laugh; a laugh is better than medicine.

Learn to mind your own business; few men can handle their own very well.

Learn to say kind things; nobody ever resents them.

Learn to tell a story; a well-told story is like a sunbeam in a sickroom.

Learn to place yourself in the other person's position before condemning; it might change your whole outlook.

Learn the great lessons of the Bible; no greater lessons can be learned.

Give Me The Truth!

If you are my friend, if you are concerned about my soul, give me the truth. Do not flatter me. Do not praise my virtues while remaining silent about my vices. Do not fear that the truth will offend me. Do not treasure our friendship, our friendly relations, above my salvation. Do not think that by ignoring my sins you can help. Do not think that being blind to my sins will prove yourself charitable. However I may react to it whatever may be my attitude toward you after you have done it, give me the truth! For the truth, and only the truth, can make men free from the shackles of sin, strengthen me in the pathway of righteousness and lead me to the joys of heaven. If I am wavering, weak, lukewarm, indifferent, neglectful; if I have been overtaken in a trespass, if I have been drawn into the pleasures of the world; if I have left first love; if I have been led astray by error; or if I have done none of these, but simply need to grow in knowledge and be edified, give me the truth!
