SYMPATHY

Our sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Barbara Loudermilk.
She passed away on Wednesday.
She was Maggie's Great-Grandmother.

Aim High!

We often set our sights way too low. With a defeatist attitude, we convince ourselves that we can't do this, that, or the other. We must be willing to pay the price. Here is an example in a news item which appeared in a New York paper in 1868.

"A man has been arrested in New York for attempting to extort funds from ignorant and superstitious people by exhibiting a device which he says will convey the human voice any distance over metallic wires so that it will be heard by the listener at the other end. He calls the instrument a telephone. We---informed people know that it is impossible to transmit the human voice over wires."

Let's not be guilty of holding back the progress God has planned for us. Let's be aiming high as our meeting approaches.

No Cut Rates!

Just suppose you were the owner and operator of a store. You go through the store and mark on each item the price you expect to receive. But you have working in your store a person who says, "I know this item is marked $4, but I'll sell it for $3. And here's one that is marked $8, but I'll sell it for $6." Your reaction would likely be, "That's unfair and dishonest, and I'll not have a person like that working in my store."

Jesus has set down for us what He expects by way of our obedience. To be saved from our sins He tells us that we must hear the gospel, believe it, repent of our sins, confess Jesus is the Christ, then be buried in baptism and raised to walk in newness of life. Each step in this plan of salvation is important. To say that repentance or baptism or any other step is non-essential is to act in the same manner as the clerk who required less than the store owner required.

My friend, we cannot afford to alter the arrangements made by our Lord. Listen to and heed this warning. "For I testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, if any man shall add unto these things God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things that are written in this book." (Revelation 22:18,19).
