How Did He Die (Live)?

It seems that there is a morbid part of man that causes him to be more interested in how people die than in how they live. When we see a funeral procession, the first question usually asked is, "Whose funeral is it?" Then the second question follows, "How did he die?"

I recently mentioned to a friend on a given occasion that I had a funeral to preach within a few minutes. He asked, "Whose funeral is it?" I told him. Then he asked a very unusual question: "How did he live?"

All the way through the funeral that question kept coming to my mind. It is far more important how people live than how they die. There are a thousand and one different ways to die.

As we stand before God on Judgment Day, the supreme question will not be, "How did you die?" Rather, it will be, "How did you live?" "The Lord has no pleasure in the death of the wicked" (Ezekiel 33:11), but "precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints" (Psalm 116:15).

Preacher Quits Sports

1. Every time I went, they asked me for money.

2. The people with whom I had to sit didn't seem very friendly.

3. The seats were too hard and not at all comfortable.

4. I went to many games, but the coach never came to call on me.

5. The referee made a decision with which I could not agree.

6. I suspected that I was sitting with some hypocrites—they came to see their friends and what others were wearing rather than to see the game.

7. Some games went into overtime, and I was late getting home.

8. The band played some numbers that I had never heard before.

9. It seems that the games are scheduled when I want to do other things.

10. I was taken to too many games by my parents when I was growing up.

THANKS

Dear Dunlap church of Christ; Thank you so much for sending us food! We greatly appreciate your thinking of us during this time. It is a great comfort to know our Christian Family on earth will also be our Family in Heaven. The Triplett Family

Words cannot express how thankful I am for the visits and calls, and especially the prayers. Thanks to Freddie for bringing the fruit basket and for the visit. For all the cards and pictures. Keep praying for me, my foot is healing slowly. In Christian love, Sarah Dodson.

Dear Christian Friends, Thank you for the cake and for the flowers, and thinking of us at this painful time. Most of all thank you for your prayers, cards and phone calls these six years. It was a tough journey, especially for Glenn, but he fought a good fight and kept the faith, knowing there was a better life awaiting. Love to all from the Family of Glenn Cookston

To the Dunlap church of Christ; Thank you for the visits at the Funeral Home, the food, the prayers, those who helped sing and a special thanks to the Ladies who prepared the food for the meal after the Service.
