What Could "Wiki" Leak on You?

WikiLeaks is "an international non-profit organization that publishes secret information, news leaks, and classified media from anonymous sources" (www.en.wikipedia.org). Those even remotely following the news lately have heard how WikiLeaks has revealed to the public what its personal subjects thought were private and/or classified emails concerning "top secret" information. Most of what has been "leaked" lately are the emails of a particular presidential candidate. The information may or may not be admissible in a court of law because of the way it was obtained, but what it reveals is at the very least embarrassing and at the worst downright illegal and dangerous to national security. One major truth this shows, all politics aside, is that we better be careful what we do in "secret."

How would we feel if WikiLeaks leaked private media messages we posted or if it revealed our browser history for everyone to see? Well, guess what? God knows more than WikiLeaks ever could and what is revealed to Him is much more consequential than being broadcast on public media outlets. There are no "privacy settings" from God! He "knows the secrets of the heart" (Psalm 44:21). He is able to search "all hearts" and to understand "all the intent of the thoughts" (1 Chronicles 28:9). This ability to know human hearts is good for God's faithful children because it allows Him to answer prayer (Matthew 6:8; Romans 8:26-27). It is also for the good of God's people to know that nothing can be hidden from Him because it will better motivate us to keep our "secret" things pure, for "all things are naked and open to the eyes of Him to whom we must give account" (Hebrews 4:13). God, who still "sees in secret will Himself reward you openly" (Matthew 6:4, 6, 18), both now and in the life to come (Matthew 25:31-46).

Whether publicly or privately, our lives must be in harmony with God's will. Jesus said, "I am He who searches the minds and hearts. And I will give to each one of you according to your works" (Revelation 2:23). May we live in such a way that if WikiLeaks published our private lives or media posts for others to see, they would "see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven" (Matthew 5:16).
