DOES JESUS LIVE HERE?

A knock brought a mother to the door and there stood a child with a Bible in his hand. He asked, "Does Jesus live here?" The woman, a member of the Church, was so taken aback by the unexpected question that she did not answer. She didn't remember what he said next...then slowly walked away. All day she thought about the question, and that evening she told her husband. He laughed and said, "Why didn't you show him our name in the church directory, tell him that we nearly always send our children to Bible class and we go sometimes, that, we occasionally give to the church, and that we are a respected Christian family?" "Yes," she said, "that is all true, and I could have told him all that but he didn't ask me the things you mentioned. He asked me if Jesus lived here, and I have been wondering all day if He does." ... Christ liveth in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave Himself for me" (Gal. 2:20).

If Tomorrow Never Comes!

James 4:14 reads: "Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away." With these thoughts in mind, let's think about the following:

"What if's" – often foolish and detrimental, but sometimes valuable. For example, "What if tomorrow never comes?" Fanciful you say? Our text shows otherwise! (II Peter 3:8-14). From this text one thing is certain – life is uncertain!

But there are some things that are certain! (cf. Hebrews 9:27; Matthew 25:32; Revelation 20:11-12). It is no wonder then that Peter, when he looked at the uncertainty of life, went on to ask what manner of persons we ought to be (II Peter 3:11)! If tomorrow never comes, what manner of things do I want written in the book of life? Do I want it written that I....

Was In Christ?

Many spend their whole life striving to be in the best clothing, house, car ... but what will these matter a hundred years from now? What will matter is whether I am in Christ (Ephesians 1:3; Ephesians 5:23). But how? We must let the Judge answer (Romans 6:1-4; Galatians 3:26-27).

Was A Servant Of God?

Matthew 20:20-28 – Again, any other way is failure. Being "in Christ" brings responsibilities as a servant (Romans 6:17; Titus 2:11-14; II Timothy 4:6-8; Revelation 2:10). We might ask, "what is a servant?" – let the Judge answer (Matthew 25:23; I Samuel 2:35).

Was An Example To Others?

If my son/daughter/grandchild/spouse ... follows me, then according to Bible teaching, my example will lead them to heaven or hell. Whether older like Paul (1 Corinthians 11:1) or young like Timothy (1 Timothy 4:12), we can each give the gift of an example to others. What kind of example will be written that I have been in becoming a child of God? Worshipping? Living?

Made A Difference?

We're not speaking of worldly accomplishments, but making a difference for eternity! Making a real difference can come in many ways such as, (1) Influencing your child, spouse, or anyone else to obey the Gospel; (2) Allowing the light of God in you to push the darkness back in a world filled with darkness (Matthew 5:16); (3) Living so as to glorify God in the midst of a self-serving world. Such things make an eternal difference!

Conclusion

If tomorrow never comes (and indeed it may not), then who do I want to be like?
1) The rich man who is suffering and bemoaning the fate of others? (Luke 16:22-25)
2) Lazarus, comforted in Abraham's bosom? (Luke 16:23)

The choice is mine (and yours!).
