WHAT IS LOVE?

Love is silent when your words would hurt.

It is patience when your brother is hurt.

It is deafness when some scandal flows.

It is thoughtfulness for another's woes.

It is courage if misfortune comes along.

It is hurting as others hurt.

It is rejoicing when others have reason to rejoice.

It is correction when one has done wrong.

It is going the extra mile for those in need.

There certainly are other things that define what love is, but we all know that nothing takes the place of love!

And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three, but the greatest of these is charity (LOVE). I Cor. 13:13

How Could We Be Wrong?

"But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear," (1 Peter 3:15). "If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God," (1 Peter 4:11). Do these verses not tell us that we should be able to explain from God's word why we teach what we teach and do what we do? While folks may not like it and false accusations result, where are the honest and reasonable opponents who would attempt to prove us wrong?

Are we wrong to teach that there is only one way to heaven and that Christ is that way? Did not Jesus say, "I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me," (John 14:6)? Was not the Lord restrictive when saying, "...Strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it," (Matthew 7:14)? Tell me now. Does that sound like there is more than one way to heaven?

Are we wrong when we teach there is no salvation outside of Christ? I can read Paul speaking of the location of salvation in II Timothy 2:10 and it is "in Christ Jesus." Paul also wrote in Ephesians 1:3: "Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ." A few verses later Paul wrote of Christ: "In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace," (Ephesians 1:7). Are we wrong to conclude from these and other passages that it is "in Christ" where salvation is available, and where redemption and forgiveness of sins are found? How could that be wrong?

Are we wrong to teach that the only way to get into Christ is by baptism? The two passages that tell us this were penned by Paul who wrote by the inspiration of the Holy Spirit. "Know ye not that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death," (Romans 6:3). "For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ," (Galatians 3:27). How could we be wrong in our honest assessment that the scriptures nowhere teach that there is any other way into Christ?

Are we wrong to say that there is one body? I mean, does not Paul by inspiration say that exactly in Ephesians 4:4? In I Corinthians 12:20 Paul said there are many members "but one body." Who could misunderstand the clarity of that language?

Are we wrong when we say that the one body is the one church? In Colossians 1:18 Paul wrote, "And he (Christ) is the head of the body, the church." In Ephesians 1:22,23 Paul wrote, "And hath put all things under his (Christ) feet, and gave him to be head over all things to the church, Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth all in all." How could we be wrong when we simply believe and thus quote what Paul wrote by inspiration?
