"MORE THAN TOKEN EFFORT"

*"When he has more than he can eat
To feed a stranger's not a feat.
When he has more than he can spend
It isn't hard to give or lend.
Who gives but what he'll never miss
Will never know what giving is.
He'll win few praises from the Lord
Who does but what he can afford.
The widow's mite to Heaven went
Because real sacrifice it meant.*

April 3rd – 6th, Our Gospel Meeting

With Dan Jones, Please make plans
To attend all services. Invite family, friends and the community.
Fellowship meal following the
Sunday morning service.

Jesus Did Not Die On The Cross To Make It Possible For Members Of His Church To:

- Sleep in on Sunday and miss Bible study and worship.
- Stay at home when we have out of town guests.
- Attend sporting or social event during the week and regularly neglect Bible study and worship.
- Talk to people about politics and not about the value of their soul.
- Wear themselves out working all day and be too tired to attend Sunday and Wednesday night services.
- Pray with the church, but not by themselves in their home.
- To shop, bank, and recreate when “sick” but not attend Bible class and worship.
- Practically never miss work, even when ill; but allow a “small” headache or other ailment to prevent attendance at Bible study and worship.
- Read the paper or watch the news, but not open the Bible during the week.
- Use the phone to talk to neighbors and family, but never use it to invite them to activities of the church or to share the gospel.
- Lay aside money to spend on eating out, recreation and vacations; but throw leftovers into the collection plate on Sunday.

Our Sympathy is extended to the families that lost loved ones last week.
Eugene Layne, the brother of Lettie Guy and the nephew of Sarah Dodson
