Which Brick Are You?

If you wanted to take a brick from a construction site, which would you try first: one from the unused pile of bricks, or one that the brick layers had already used to make a wall? Of course, anyone would take from the unused pile because they would be unattached. It would be very difficult, even with tools, to remove a brick from the center of the wall.

Perhaps you can see the illustration. Some members of the church are very actively involved in the work and worship of the church and are therefore close to their brothers and sisters in Christ who also are. Then there are some who seem indifferent to the work of the church, fail to take advantage of worship and study privileges, and seldom associate with their brothers and sisters in Christ because their interests lie elsewhere. Now, which church member do you think Satan will try to get first? Of course, those unattached will make it much easier and those are the ones Satan strikes first.

God's design is that the church continually move forward as a mighty army. If we band together as an army (no AWOL members), we will certainly be less vulnerable. Does it now make good sense to be dedicated and bonded together in love for the precious cause of Jesus Christ and each other so that we can steadfastly stand against the devil?

Excuses, excuses,

You hear them every day.

The devil will supply them,

If from the services you stay away.

When people want to know the Lord's will,

The devil always loses,

So to keep those folks away from what they need,

He offers them excuses.
