BIOMETRICS: THE IRIS

"The eye to this day gives me a cold shudder." (Charles Darwin, A letter to a friend, 1860)

"I will praise thee: for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvelous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well." (Psalms 193:14)

According to an article titled, "What is Iris Recognition Technology?" World Wide Web, wisegeek, January 24, 2007, "Iris recognition technology offers the highest accuracy in identifying individuals of any method available. This is because no two irises are alike – not between identical twins, or even between the left and right eye of the same person. Irises are also stable; unlike other identifying characteristics that can change with age, the pattern of one's iris is fully formed by ten months of age and remains the same for the duration of their lifetime. Iris recognition technology is also accurate because it uses more than 240 points of reference in an iris pattern as a basis for a match. By comparison, fingerprints use about 60."

Amazing! We humans have individual fingerprints, individual DNA Code, proved scientifically that the eye pupil, the iris is uniquely ours for life, along with our other identifying uniqueness. These identifying features of the human body are called Biometrics by the scientific community. All human identification features are uniquely yours and mine, now isn't that astonishing?

How can anyone believe we evolved by sheer chance, starting with a "big bang" to an ole "slime pit" thus bringing "life" or something of this nature? Talk about "science fiction"! We have all these multiplied evidences of order, design, and the complete uniqueness of each human that ever lived on the "face of the earth". The only logical answer is, "In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth..." "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them." (Genesis 1:1, 27)

Yes, Mr. Darwin we are "fearfully and wonderfully made", so just "shudder" away.
