The next worse thing to lying is getting caught at it.

Christians are like pianos—grand, square, upright, and no good unless in tune.

Man was created a little lower than angels and has been getting lower ever since.

HOW YOU SPEND IT

If God granted you 70 years of life...

You would spend.... Twenty-Four years sleeping.

Fourteen years working.

Eight years in amusement.

Six years at the dinner table.

Five years in transportation.

Four years in conversation.

Three years in education.

Three years in reading,

Three years at the TV.

If you went to Worship every Sunday and prayed five minutes every morning and night, you would give God Five Month of your life.

Five months out of 70 years!

Lord, Won't You Buy Me a Mercedes Benz?

The title of this week's article comes from a 1970 song by the late Janis Joplin. Because Goose Creek Symphony was a far superior talented group than Joplin, many of us thought they introduced the song. The song is a parody prayer in which the singer asks God to give the petitioner a luxury car.

Well, we know they are not going to get that car, at least not from the Lord. The reason being, it is a prayer of selfishness and greed. The Bible says it best in James 4:3, "You ask and do not receive, because you ask amiss, that you may consume it upon your lusts."

To be self-centered and consumed with worldly desire is sinful, thus the Psalmist said, "If I regard iniquity in my heart, the Lord will not hear me." (Psalm 66:18) To pray that the Lord bless us with a luxury home, expensive car, or a fat bank account is asking for trouble. The sin of materialism, especially for those of us who live in such a rich country, can quickly lead the Christian away from God and down the path of spiritual destruction. (James 4:4; 1 John 2:15-16)

So how should the Christian handle their wants and desires for all of the "good things" in life? The answer may well be that we first redefine for ourselves what the "good things" in life really are.

1. First, we must transform our thinking. (Romans 12:1-2)
2. We can pray that God will help us develop self-control. (Galatians 5:22-23)
3. Practice giving to God first as we've been blessed. (1 Corinthians 9:6-9)
4. Realize that contentment with godliness is great gain. (1 Timothy 6:6)
5. Grasp the fact that you'll carry nothing to the grave. (Job 1:22)
6. Realize that Jesus Himself was poor and homeless. (Matthew 8:20)
7. Learn that what we do for others, not ourselves will weigh heavily in the Great Judgment. (Matthew 25:31-46)
